County, Teamsters Agree On Two-Year Pact

by Joe Schrader

Bargaining unit employees at the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept. tentatively approved a two-year labor agreement reached between negotiators of Teamster's Local 129 and county bargainers last Thursday.

Terms of the agreement will cover 24 employees in the sheriff's department until December 31, 1982. The old pact, which expired December 31, 1980, had been extended by bargaining unit members to allow negotiations to continue.

Jimmy Parker, a negotiator on the Teamsters' team, said a final ratification vote would be held as soon as the final language of the agreement is available.

The contract provides for continuation of the existing wage rate schedule with no salary increases this year, although Mary Harland, a county negotiator, said the county agreed to reopen talks on wages and life insurance benefits in 1982 if economic conditions permit.

"The employees obviously recognize the county's economic situation," said Larry Mattis, also a county bargainer, "they negotiated in a spirit of cooperation at all times during our talks".

Although no cost figures were revealed, the county agreed to changes in fringe benefits that include:

- Picking up the current employee's contribution to the retirement plan retroactive to January 1, 1981.

- Improvement to the employee longevity program to match that of county employees represented by AFSCME.

- Improvement in the employee uniform cleaning allowance.

- Improvement in the labor agreement's sick leave provision.

In addition to Parker, the bargaining committee for the Teamster's included business agent Larry Gregory from Flint, and deputy Bill Heemer.

County negotiations were handled by Mary Harland, Walt Nowak and Larry Mattis. Negotiations on the new pact began in December of 1980.

Spring Poses Special Threats, Deputies Warn

Springlike weather conditions can cause some headaches for homeowners and motorists alike and require special precautionary measures, according to Lt. Robert Ruddy of the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept.

Last week, four of six property damage accidents logged by the department involved car/deer collisions, prompting deputies to urge motorists to be on the lookout for the wily whitetails, especially during early morning, dusk and after dark driving hours.

Deputies also warn residents to exercise extreme caution when burning leaves and rubbish, etc. Four fires were reported last week, two required a response from DNR fire units. Ruddy urged curiosity-seekers to stay away from fire scenes since in most instances they inhibit fire fighting efforts. "This includes controlled burns by DNR crews," Ruddy cautioned.

Breaking and enterings, eight reported last week, continued to plague deputies, with the Four Mile Road-Barker Lake Road being particularly hard-hit last week. Residents are urged to practice the principles of "Neighborhood Watch," and report suspicious behavior to the sheriff's department as soon as it is observed.

Sunday a breaking and entering was reported at a residence across from High Banks Lodge in Lovells, which was reported by an observer at the lodge. The incident is under investigation.

A chimney fire at the Wysocki residence on Wendy Lane was reported and firemen say the blaze was confined to the chimney.

Deputies also urge parents to instruct children about discarded freezers and refrigerators. Two children were suffocated recently when they climbed inside an abandoned refrigerator in a downstate incident. The law requires that doors be removed from appliances stored outside. Shop owners selling used refrigerators and freezers must secure the doors, deputies warn.

But above all, kids should be warned to stay away from abandoned refrigerators.

Assault Investigation Discontinued

The Grayling Police, after investigating a complaint of an alleged assault on a 30 year old female March 24, 1981, now feel that the alleged incident is related to two previous incidents involving larceny and arson of an automobile.

Based upon exhaustive interviews, lie detector and finger print tests, the investigation into the alleged assault has been discontinued. Investigation continues into the Arson and other related matters, according to Police Chief Pete Stephan.

M-72 West Plaza Enjoys Economic Rebirth

by Joe Schrader

When F. Weisel Excavating Company moved into the M-72 West Professional/Industrial Plaza April 1, the occupancy brought to eight the number of tenants currently doing business in the sprawling, 128,000 square foot facility.

"We came because of its appeal," said Louise Weisel when she talks about how Grayling was picked to start up their earth moving and dragline business run by her husband, Florian.

Her comments perhaps echo the sentiments of Plaza Manager, Jack Hull, who in less than two years has negotiated to have eight tenants, including commercial, industrial and service enterprises, consume about 70% of the available space that once served as the home for the thriving Bear Archery Company.

"People are finding that dollar for dollar, investing in Crawford County is a sound investment," said Hull as he discussed future plans for the complex, "the people involved in the project here have a true commitment to the people of Grayling."

When Bear closed its doors for the last time in October of 1978, the facility assumed an ominous silence that reflected the economic mood of local townsfolk, who relied heavily, almost solely in fact, on the Archery as a financial base.

The plant sat idle for a year until a Michigan Limited Partnership, M-72 Associates, announced it had purchased the building with ambitious plans for its future. The organization named Jack Hull to manage the facility, and opened Miller-Christensen of Grayling, Inc., introducing a new reality firm to the local scene.

The facility was named 'M-72 West Professional & Industrial Plaza'.

Almost concurrent with the purchase notice came an announcement from RDI, Inc., that it would combine three local operations into one at the Plaza, with plans to occupy 30,000 sq. ft. of manufacturing space. RDI officials say the availability of the building in 1979 played a major role in the company's decision to stay in Grayling.

The company made the move into the Plaza quickly, and turns out plastic parts for automobile manufacturers with a current payroll of 25 employees, although employment has gone as high as 70 employees at times.

Since occupancy by RDI and Miller-Christensen, six additional businesses have moved in, following a tenancy plan that Hull says is "on target" compared to projections made with the facility was first opened. To date, the following companies have followed RDI's lead to locate at the Plaza:

- Golden Rule Printing Company relocated from Ingham St. in July of 1980. A commercial printing operation, the company occupies over 1,100 square feet.

- Michigan Liquor Control Commission signed a lease and opened in November of 1980. The state liquor outlet occupies 7,600 sq. ft. of completely-refurbished space, greeting customers daily with Grayling's "Milltown" look.

- Harris-Crestline Corporation picked Grayling and the Industrial Plaza to open its window and door assembly operation last November. The Wausau, Wisconsin-based industry uses over 30,000 sq. ft. and has hired 10 employees so far.

Weyerhaeuser Has Broken Ground

"The first two weeks of construction are on schedule," reports Frank Perry, construction manager for Weyerhaeuser Company's new STRUCTUR-WOOD plant to be located south of Grayling on Four Mile Road.

Construction crews broke ground on April 6th, and are now pouring concrete footings for the 207,000 square foot facility. Utley-James, Incorporated, from Pontiac, Michigan, is the contractor for building construction.

According to Perry, the electrical contractor is now excavating for underground conduit and truckloads of plant equipment are already beginning to arrive at the site. He estimates that the site will have an energy supply by mid-May, based on Consumer Power's schedule for completion of its substation.

Tony Moore, general manager, and members of his staff will begin relocating to the Grayling area this spring. They, along with the construction team, will be located in trailers on the Weyerhaeuser plant site until permanent office facilities are completed in the Fall of 1981.

The $60 million facility is scheduled to start production in the Fall of 1982. It will produce an exterior grade sheathing panel to be used for roof, sidewall and floor applications by the building industry. When the plant is running at full capacity, it will produce 215 million square feet per year and employ 150 people.

Dial-A-Ride Exceeds Passenger High For Month

by Jack Mason

Crawford County Public Transit (Dial-A-Ride) announced that it had carried more passengers in March than any other month since its founding in December of 1976. The 10,128 figure surpassed the previous high of 9,773, set in January of this year. In March of last year, the service carried 7,323 riders.

Manager Chet Johnston, commenting on the new high said, "Naturally, we are extremely pleased with this figure for it indicates two things. First, the confidence the public had in our service at the last general election millage proposal is fully justified. But, more importantly, we are doing what we were set up to do. Crawford County Public Transit is definitely filling a County-wide need on an ever-growing basis.

In that fact alone County residents can take real pride. I can speak for all of us here when I say that we do."

During the month, C.C.P.T. carried an average of 327 riders a day, or nearly 28 passengers an hour during the hours of operation. Johnston added that the increase was accomplished without any increase in equipment or personnel.

Johnston pointed out another not-so-obvious benefit. "There were more than ten thousand County trips last month which did not require private transportation, but relied on us. The Eighteen Grayling High students were inducted into the National Honor Society during a special candlelight service held at the school on April 8th.

The inductees joined a group of fifteen other GHS students in the prestigious organization that recognized academic scholarship, along with other equally important criteria including personal, social and leadership qualities.

Membership in the National Honor Society places the group of 33 GHS students in the top 5% of the school's population of 650

Certificates of membership and identification cards were presented by Principal Kent Reynolds and instructor Dora Lantzech, National Honor Society Advisor. Membership was granted three sophomores, seven juniors and eight GHS seniors.

In order to qualify for membership, sophomores must achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.8, juniors must attain 3.5 and seniors, 3.2.

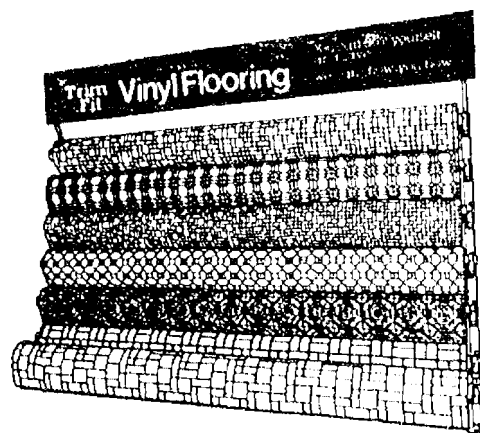

Once nominated by virtue of academic achievement, the selection procedure includes screening by a faculty committee, who take into consideration characteristics such as leadership, service and character in addition to academic endeavor. Final approval is granted by the National Honor Society's Executive Board, consisting of President Paula Doschi, Vice-President Sheri Wieland, Secretary Scott Dunkley and Treasurer Susan Prause.

Membership in the National Honor Society is a factor colleges consider when selecting students for admission, and plays a major role when seniors

Mrs. Janet Dice, an Occupational Therapist or O.T. came to the Grayling Elementary School to Mrs. Fleming's fifth grade room. Mrs. Bovee's class was also invited. Mrs. Dice works for COOR Intermediate School District. She taught us about balance, smell, taste, seeing, and touch.

In Miss Wargo's second grade class they have been doing a puppet show. It is only for their class. Almost everyone in the class put in on. They also took an egg shell and put little chickens in it. The chickens were made out of paper.

In Miss Williams' morning kindergarten class, Charles Patnode brought a puppy to school from the dog pound. He brought it for "show and tell". His name is Jasper and it sleeps with Charles every night. Heather Millikin was taking chairs down at school and one of the chairs fell on her finger and tore her fingernail off. John Noteware was skiing and he broke his leg. Now he has a walking cast. He can wear it in water and then blow it with a blow-dryer. His dad brought their new car and all of the kids piled inside of it.

Property around the building is also available for expansion, and the entire facility was painted last year in a motif designed to signal the location's intent to move forward economically. Owners will remodel to suit a tenant's need, Hull said.

An appealing factor for industry is the building's dust collection system and air-conditioned features. Four wheelabrator and one amnjet dry bag-type collectors make the building attractive for industry, like woodworking, for example, who might require the

Q: IF I CAN GET A HIGHER RETURN FROM A MONEY MARKET FUND, WHY SHOULD I PUT MY MONEY IN FIRST SAVINGS?

A: INSURED SAFETY AND A GUARANTEED RETURN.

It's as simple as that. With a First Savings Money Market Certificate there's no risk. Your savings are insured up to $100,000. And the rate is guaranteed for the length of the certificate. With a Money Market Fund it's different. Your money's not insured, so there's always the chance you could lose it all. And in many money market funds the rate of return is not guaranteed. In some Money Market Funds, the rate changes daily. If the rate goes down so does your return. That's why it's important to check carefully before you invest. So the question is really not who pays a higher return today, but risk versus no risk. We think you'll feel a lot better with your savings in a First Savings "No Risk" Money Market Certificate.

Grayling, Michigan—Thursday, April 16, 1981

From Our Corner ...

Palm Sunday afternoon... and all we can think about to get this turkey moving is to apologize for the work the gremlins did in last week's edition... they were plentiful, but we do have an excuse... our staff is short handed for last week and this week as Rena is vacationing in Florida with her family, and is due back the 20th, then maybe we all will be back to our usual jobs...

We heard good things from the Detroit Lions contingent that were here for the basketball game against the Grayling All Stars... they said that Grayling was the best town they had ever played in... the ball game and the way they were treated was the best ever... nice to hear things about the ol' town, rather the barbs people pass our way at times...

It must be spring... Saturday afternoon we paid a visit to the Country Club with our bride so that she could sign up and be ready to hit the links most any day now... we don't like to tell tales out of school but, she forgot to take her clubs home last fall and was a little apprehensive until she found out Saturday they were in the same spot where she had left them... when she reads this, she probably won't fix dinner that night for us...

Saturday evening we attended a going away party for Carl MacLeod, son of Scotty and Betty at their home just south of Frederic... never seen so much food and orange pop for a party this size... we did our share in both categories... talking with Carl we found out he is heading for Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri... and took us back to 1942... that is where the ol' fella took his 13 weeks of basic training... at first we were thinking of the Ozark Mountains he will be climbing up and own, and if it rains, there is plenty of red clay to trample through and then try to get your boots clean for inspection... it really isn't that bad, there are a few R & R towns to visit such as Waynesville, Rolla, Jefferson City, and many more that are near the Fort... it was an experience that we won't forget, and am sure Carl won't either...

An idle thought... we were going to mention this in last week's issue, memory failed us... it is good to hear the 12 o'clock, 6 o'clock and one at 10 whistle blowing once again... we were talking to Ed Schultz last week and he said he had been working on the mechanism to have it blow just so long... all we can add is that we are glad that Jerry has his whistle back, and we are sure he really doesn't give a toot...

Another idle thought... we are most happy that our street is one of the streets that the city will be working on this summer... when we moved into our house some 30 years ago it was one of the best black topped roads in the city... time took care of it... now it will probably become one of the raceways for those who wish to race around town at night... but with enough stop signs they should control some...

The more we read and talk to people on this new tax proposal that will be voted on May 19th, the more we think there is something in the wood pile that if it passes Michigan will be hooked again just like the downstaters passed Con-Con that practically took everything away from out-state Michigan... there are too many hidden facts about this proposal that will become a Constitutional Amendment that will put a monkey on your back for good... if it passes and you want to change it in a few years... you're out of luck, it would take a petition drive to get it back on the ballot to throw it out... for us, we are in doubt, we're going No this time around...

This does it for tonight... have to get the Easter Bunny all set for the weekend... going to see T. J. and Stef, and folks... we hope all our readers will have a very enjoyable Easter Weekend...

Terms You Should Know

Education in any field usually begins with clear definitions of basic terms. One trained in medicine can tell a doctor from a quack by understanding and use of medical terms. Theology is the science of studying God. In theology there are terms which help us to identify the true from the false.

1. BIBLICIST—Biblicist is a term used both despitely and approvingly of those who believe in the authority of the Word of God and seek to live in obedience to it, a term sometimes confused with bibliolatri, which is the worship of the Bible as a book as distinguished from the worship of the Scriptures as the Word of God.

2. THE CHURCH—The Church is a spiritual body created on the Day of Pentecost, into which all true believers of this age are baptized by the Holy Spirit. The local expression of the church is a company of baptized believers, independent in character and autonomous in function, existing in fellowship with other churches of like faith and order.

3. FUNDAMENTALISM—Fundamentalism is that Biblically-loyal movement of ecclesiastical separation of the twentieth century which is simply a restatement of the historical Christian Faith, emphasizing all the essential doctrines relating to the person and work of Christ, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures, which is regarded as infallible, inerrant, and authoritative.

4. BIBLICAL NON-ESSENTIALS (Peripheral Truth)—Biblical non-essentials is that false view of the Bible wherein man usurps God's right to determine what is essential in revelation, a view which regards salvation truth as of chief importance, while setting aside as "non-essential" other truths which tend to hinder the false harmony and unity of ecclesiastical compromise.

5. COMPROMISE—Compromise is that theological or ecclesiastical settlement reached by means of concession, involving surrender of something which was originally considered to be important in order to maintain a working relationship.

6. MODERNISM—Modernism is that theological position which rejects any or all of the Bible as the Word of God, denying the supernatural elements of the Bible and the miraculous character of the person and work of Christ, magnifying the false doctrine of the universal Fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man, with an emphasis on the social gospel as opposed the New Testament gospel of Grace to the individual.

Notice we started with the most conservative Biblicists and ended with the liberal Modernists. Next week we shall study terms dealing with various stages of modernism or unbelief of God and the Bible. (adv.)

Youth For Understanding

A unique experience awaits you and your family for 1981! Would inviting someone from another part of the world to live with your family, share ideas, cultures, customs and language be of interest to you? If so, you and your family may be interested in being a host family for an exchange student through the Youth for Understanding Student Exchange Program.

This year, over 4,000 high school students will travel to the U.S.A. to live for a year with American families and share learning experience with them. The students are treated as members of the family, not as guests. The students bring with them their own spending money, and are fully covered by medical, dental, and liability insurance. The host family provides the student with room and board and the same love and understanding that it provides their own children.

"Families in Michigan have been very receptive to our program and our foreign exchange students," states Diane Follebout, Michigan Director. "Over the past four years we have had close to 3,200 international students placed with families throughout the state, in big cities, small towns, and rural communities. Volunteer Area Representatives are currently in the process of attempting to find families who may be interested in hosting one of the 650 students who will be coming to Michigan during August for a one year stay."

Mrs. Follebout explains: "These students come from 26 countries, are 14-18 years of age, have studied English for 2-11 years, and are eager to learn and share. Carsten Germer is a 17-year-old boy from Denmark who is looking forward to his American experience. His father is in the Royal Danish

Army and his mother is a physiotherapist. The family is completed by an 18-year-old brother. Carsten is a good student who has studied English for 7 years, German for 5 and French for 1. An avid soccer player, he also enjoys model building, drawing, photography, music, and fishing. Carsten is an active member of his town's youth club and considers himself to be an outdoor person.

"I would say that Carsten is fairly typical of most of our students. Both boys and girls are interested in learning about American, about what makes us tick, and to show us who and what they are," continues Mrs. Follebout. "Anyone interested in finding out more about what it is to be a host family and to learn more about Carsten or other students should feel free to call me at 517-777-4420. We will be more than happy to explain the program to anyone."

TALENT SHOW—Mrs. Emerick, the Grayling and Frederic Elementary music teacher, sponsored a talent show for the Grayling Elementary School on Monday, April 6, 1981, in the multipurpose room. Ninety students, from either fourth or fifth grade rooms, participated in thirty different performances. Pictures are Mrs. Emerick with Susan Casler, Julie Huss, and Michelle Welch, whose act "It's a Small, Small World," was the final performance. All grades attended the show during two different performances. (Photo by Jerry Hayes)

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey:

I would like to answer a recent letter to the editor concerning the middle school.

To be able to raise your income simply by raising your fees to your customers, for payment of your property and school tax is one thing, but to make joke of your neighbors because they are on fixed income and wages is something else. Spending 3-4 million on a school, plus another 5-6 million for interest, plus all the additional busing, etc., etc., etc. At this point in time is complete insanity for most of us.

And for the interested citizens to try to explain their view points to the other side is NOT a laughing matter. I should hope All Citizens still have the right of "Freedom of speech" even though a lot of the meetings were held without publication, posting, or notification to the public, we can still go to the open meetings and express our opinions as we've done. I thought we were speaking to deaf-ears, but evidently someone heard us and found us comical, but say we're uninformed is like saying the "Pope isn't Catholic"...What is your basis for such a statement, please answer, or why do you say you find the "walk-thru experts" especially enjoyable? You were not present on any of our inspections, although I personally will walk-thru with you or anyone else to listen to your side.

I have built approximately 200 homes in the area over the past several years and would thoroughly enjoy putting my knowledge in the field up against the entire board and the veterinarians in town. Also probably amusing to you, our group of walk-thrus included plumbers, electricians, businessmen, builders, housewives, etc. But since we're all so insignificant, (like the approx. 900 signatures on the petition in 3 days time) maybe you shepherders should just pool your own pocket change and build the school. Maybe if you can come up with the cash you can save the interest, you don't seem to want our questions, input or ideas, so you certainly don't need or want our money—Do You???

In your letter you take text out of context from each of the "so called expert studies", this is called a PRE text, especially when all the text have been created by architectural firms, builders, etc. with something to gain. These same Pretexts and assumptions are what got us to the point we're at today, assuming "each and everything" anyone says was gospel.

All the misrepresentation, contradictions and highly inflated projected remodeling costs shown which, when added together makes a rebuilding vs remodeling project seem more feasible. These assumptions and Pretexts have led to many suggestions, recommendations and conclusions NOT based on fact. If the pushers or proposers would have been more open and asked for input for the uniformed enjoyable comics "I'm sure we'd be in a realistic remodeling at this point".

Updating of our educational system does not have to be done by putting a 30 year monkey on the backs of the children when they get out of school.

Plenty of people received an education in one room, log buildings. They didn't have the updated, contemporary school setting you're talking about, Thank Heaven. Because personally I believe this type of logic is what's been bringing so many Educated Fools into the community lately. Common sense and logic got this community this far and most people moved here and lived because they like it, as is.

Hear the Band

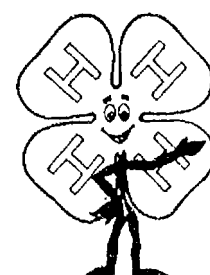

by Terri Fijolek

As I mentioned before, we were invited to play at the Frederic Elementary School. We did that about two weeks ago and had a great time playing for the kids. This past week we went to the Grayling Elementary School and played two short assemblies for the students. We had hoped to go to the Middle School but we were unable to that day. Hopefully we will be able to play there at a later date.

May 24th, The Reef Petroleum Big Band will be coming to Grayling to play for the Jazz Band and they will also be playing a concert for all people to attend. The Reef Band travels throughout Northern Michigan and plays for all people. Hope to see you there!

The band members are currently working on ideas to raise money so they can go to a band camp. The students have not been able to go to a band camp for a couple of years now. Band camp is a great benefit to anyone who attends it. You can learn new marching techniques and also new music is available to play. We would like to see as many students as possible go to a camp and come back a better band member.

CO-OPERATIVE

"Cooperative Extension Service programs are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin or sex."

by Sue Louchart

Hi! I'm Chris Clover here with news from the Crawford County 4-H Clubs.

With spring here people are starting to think about gardening. Lloyd Nevins gave me the following about a new 4-H Club he is starting.

"Have you heard the statement made 'You can't grow a garden up here'? Then they go on to say 'This is for two reasons—first, we have a real short growing season and second, the soil is so sandy that it won't even grow beans.' These problems will be dealt with in a new 4-H Club to be started soon. Some of the things that will be covered will be which varieties of vegetables you should choose, how to plant a garden lot 10 by 15 and much more. Did you know you shouldn't plant onions next to green beans? If you plant carrots and radishes together when you pull the radishes you will be thinning the carrots? The above are just a few of the things that this new 4-H Club will be covering."

Sounds like Lloyd has lots of helps for people about gardening up here in the north country. If you are interested in this club call the Office and let them know so when the starting details are finalized they can contact you. Happy gardening, Lloyd!

Another new club that has sprung into spring is called Let Me Be Me Club. Topics to be learned will be personal grooming, cooking, sewing, personal budgeting and much more. Many field trips are being planned for the boys and girls to enjoy. 4-Hers ages 12 and up are welcomed to become active in this new club starting April 27th at 5:30 p.m. in the Court House basement. Helping young people acquire "Life Skills" is one of the many goals of 4-H and this club will help the young people develop them mentally, physically and socially.

The Small Farm Animals Club has been very busy building a candler this spring for the members to look at the insides of eggs through the shell and see the development of baby chickens. Their next project is going to be the building of an incubator to hatch chickens. Chickens and rabbits are still for sale and new members are always welcomed.

4-H was in the Middle School again with Kathy Mobarak showing the classes the art of Easter candy making. She showed the making of crosses and Easter egg candies. Other groups in town who would like to have Kathy show them the art of making candies just let her know.

The Clown Club will be starting in May so get your names into the Office so they can contact you when the plans are final.

The new clubs sure are springing into action as the flowers are starting to bloom. Speaking of flowers blooming congratulations are in order to Brenda Hoard for giving birth to a beautiful little rosebud. May your little girl grow and develop into a beautiful rose, Brenda. We are all happy for you. Nice Going!

It's been brought to my attention that the Office needs to know two weeks ahead of time that people want to attend workshops at the Kett. Center. Workshops coming up through May will cover the following topics—Dog Care and Training, Bicycle Workshop, Photography Workshop, Entomology Workshop, Challenge Basic Leader Certification, Challenge Regional Instructor Training, and Urban Leaders Conference. All these workshops are open to 4-H leaders, 4-H teens and anyone interested in the topics in the community. Further details are available through the Office.

Another reminder that the Office will be closed April 20th through the 24th and the regular 4-H Council meeting for the 20th was changed to the 27th for 4-H leaders and anyone interested in the youth of our county.

Also the Office has a half time position available for the months of June, July and August for a 4-H Mainstreaming Coordinator for the Handicapped. If anyone is interested in this position call the Office mornings.

If anyone would like to join one or more of the many clubs or start a new club call the 4-H Office at 348-5123 and let Ann know. Look for me next week with more news about the clubs and what's new in 4-H. See you!

Auto Emission Standards Delayed By Legislative Committee

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Proposed state administrative rules to implement the inspection and maintenance provisions of the auto emission control law were delayed by a joint legislative committee in hopes for changes in the federally-prodded program.

The Department of State complied with the request of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules to withdraw the rules but a spokesman said the department would like the rules implemented and would resubmit them as soon as possible.

Phillip Frangos of the Department of State, the state agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the program, said the committee's action means the state could be set back in its ability to implement the emissions program by the January 1, 1982 deadline set by federal officials.

The state is threatened with the loss of federal funds for a variety of programs and with denial of industrial construction permits if the program is not in operation by then.

Auto emission testing and maintenance is required in areas failing to meet certain air standards. It is expected to affect, for now, only Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Both Governor William Milliken and Secretary of State Richard Austin have asked President Reagan to lift the emission requirements, saying the state could come into compliance with clean air requirements through other means.

In asking the department to withdraw the rules, the committee members indicated they wanted to see if any changes would come from Washington.

Officials in the federal administration have indicated they would want to make changes in the clean air requirements.

The committee members also said they wanted to tie their action on the auto emission requirements to action on the air and water pollution surveillance fees.

Frango said the committee action showed a "reluctance to do something until some guidance from Washington."

The State Department rules deal with actual testing of motor vehicles in areas not found in compliance with clean air rules.

Under the act, which was approved partially to prevent the federal government from denying permits for the construction of new industrial plants in the tri-county area, the Department of Natural Resources will determine which areas do not comply with the clean air rules.

Motorists in those areas will then have to have their vehicles tested and if they do not comply with the clean air requirements, be adjusted by qualified mechanics.

House Minority Leader William Bryant (R-Grosse Pointe Farms) urged the rules not be adopted, saying he had no doubts the Reagan administration would scuttle the rules.

Frangos, however, said there was nothing definite from the administration that the rules would be struck.

The rules will now be reworked and be placed back before the committee for further consideration.

If the Reagan administration, meanwhile, scraps the regulations, the rules and the entire program will be placed on hold until they become necessary under the current administration or a subsequent administration revitalizes the program.

Miss Grayling, Court to Help Cancer Crusade

Miss Grayling, Connie Keene, and her Court, Holly Nunn and Kelly VanNuck, will help with the Crawford County Cancer Crusade in May. The girls will canvas the Frederic area along with Mrs. Rose Hemstret.

This year the American Cancer Society's annual educational and fund raising crusade is saying to everyone, "You are the key to cancer control". American Cancer Society volunteers like Miss Grayling and her Court will distribute life-saving information and ask for support of the Society's vital programs to advance the prevention, detection, treatment and eventual elimination of cancer.

During the week of April 20th - 24th, special features concerning the fight against cancer will run each morning on the Northern Michigan Morning program at 8:00 a.m. on Channel 9 & 10.

Editor:

Since Dr. Mesack considers "US" Comics for writing about restoring the "OLD" Middle School, I certainly don't want to disappoint the Doctor this issue of the Avalanche.

Maybe the good Doctor is living on Cloud "9" and thinks "US" comics will go away with his recitation of the "experts" opinions that the old Middle School must be demolished. (another comic joke).

Actually, maybe the experts are like J.R. with selfish motives to import high cost labor to build a new school. Like the new high school which is "uninsulated", will need a new roof soon and probably represents some graft for someone who pushed its being built 8 years ago. That school did not solve many problems.

The engineers on the proposed new Middle School are just as biased (and probably were directed to be) against the restoring of the old for building the new. There's more graft available in a new school.

Yet, to restore the old Middle School could be done by local talent and labor and keep the money here in Grayling where it is direly needed.

The day that "BRICKS AND MORTAR" make an education; the teachers will ALL be out of a job.

Kirtland to Present "Barefoot in the Park"

"Barefoot in the Park", a Neil Simon comedy from the 1960's, is being presented at Kirtland Community College. The movie version starred Jane Fonda and Robert Redford.

"Barefoot in the Park" is the story of newlyweds Paul and Corie Bratter, who seek privacy in a fifth floor apartment in a New York "Brownstone", discovering that even five flights of stairs do not discourage visits from strange neighbors.

Mr. Velasco, a thoroughly nice fellow although a little strange, gains Corie's confidence with his eloquence and becomes a major part of all the excitement. Corie's Mother is an attractive widow who receives a matrimonial nudge from Corie; however her scheme backfires in an unexpected way.

Mr. Velasco is played by Jim Karpicke of Luzerne. Jim is employed by the State of Michigan, at the MESC Job Service Office in Grayling. You will remember Jim as Dr. Sedgwick in "It's a Bird, It's a Plane, It's Superman", as Charles in "Pippin" and as Sir Harry in "Once Upon a Mattress".

Safety Tip for Kite Flyers

Prudenville—"Go fly a kite" says G. I. Brown, Consumers Power Company's Prudenville Area Manager, "but do it safely."

Brown is urging parents and school officials to warn youngsters of the dangers of flying kites near electric lines and poles.

"Each year," he says, "accidents happen when kites become tangled in trees and wires. Children are injured trying to free them." He added that accidents also occur when a kite flyer uses metallic or wet string which can conduct current if it crosses an electric line.

Brown listed these basic rules which will help kite flyers avoid trouble:

1. Use dry string—not wire or anything metallic.
2. Use wood, paper or plastic in your kite—not wire or metal.
3. Fly your kite on days when there is no threat of rain.

4. Avoid busy streets and highways.

5. Fly your kite far from television and radio antennas.

6. Keep away from electric lines.

7. If an electric line falls, stay away from it.

8. Call your power company if a kite gets snagged in a line—do not pull the string or climb the pole or tower.

Inducted Into History Honorary

ALMA—Timothy Miller of Grayling was one of 12 Alma College students inducted recently into Phi Alpha Theta, international history honorary.

Phi Alpha Theta's purpose is to recognize and encourage excellence in academic work in general and history in particular.

To be accepted as members, students must have completed at least four courses in history with a grade point average in all history courses averaging above a "B". They must also have at least a "B" average in two-thirds of their other course work and rank in the upper 35 percent of their class.

For Phi Alpha Theta members who enter Civil Service, there is a monetary benefit for membership in the honorary. The U.S. Civil Service Commission recognizes membership in Phi Alpha Theta as a credit qualifying the member for grade GS-7 which begins at $13,925 (as of 8/80) rather than GS-5 which begins at $11,243, a difference of $2,682 in starting salary.

"This affords a very tangible acknowledgement that organizations maintaining honor society standards merit distinction," said Donald B. Hoffman, international secretary-treasurer for Phi Alpha Theta.

Tim, a 1978 graduate of Garber High School in Essexville, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Miller, Rt. 3, Box 3361A, Grayling. He is majoring in history and economics at Alma College.

As it has in the past, Student Council collected donations for muscular dystrophy on St. Patrick's Day. Those who contributed received a small pin which said "Shamrock for Dystrophy". Student Council also had a dance to benefit muscular dystrophy, and sent all its profits to the organization. From these two activities approximately $120 was raised.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover
Park interpreter

No one has to tell anyone that times are changing or that there are a lot of new faces in the area. With this in mind, perhaps it is time to review briefly the history of one unique feature in this County. It has been 54 years since Mrs. Karen Hartwick purchased 8,236.5 acres of land from the Salling-Hanson Lumber Company. In May of 1928, the land she donated to the State of Michigan to become the Edward E. Hartwick Pines State Park was opened to the public. Mrs. Hartwick made three requests of the State: (1) that the timber on the premises was to be properly protected; (2) the Conservation Department was to erect and maintain a memorial building on the premises, and (3) a roadway running from US-27 to the Park was to be constructed (now M-93).

During the depression years, the C.C.C.'s did a lot of work in the Park, some of which is still very much in evidence: roads, firebreaks, bridges, foot trails and buildings. In 1941, hurricane force winds blew down an estimated 450,000 board feet of timber, reducing the stand of pines from 86 acres to 49 acres.

To be certain, there have been many changes in the Park, but "change" is the name of the game. New or remodeled facilities have to a large degree kept pace with the increase in visitor numbers. In 1931, 73,748 people visited the Park. In 1980, 183,032 people visited the Park; many returning with their youngsters in hand to the place where their parents had brought them years ago. Since the Park is so close, it is easy to overlook. So, if you have not been here lately, come and listen to the age-old whisper of Tall Timber.

GHS Thinclads Fourth In Spartan Relays

The GHS girls' track team will be idle until April 28 following a 4th place finish in Class C competition in the Spartan Relays at East Lansing last Friday.

St. Louis captured top honors with 34 team points, Grayling rolled up 24. Whitehall and Freeland tied for 2nd with 28 and Michigan Lutheran finished with 26.

The GHS shuttle hurdle relay team of Diane Lee, Jean Stevens, Jean Bitter and Lisa Radebaugh, captured a first place and the team's mile relay squad finished 2nd in their event. Team members were Jill Headlee, Heidi Bendig, Diane Lee and Jean Stevens. Diane Lee ran third in the 880.

"There's still room for improvement," said Coach Marilee Cheney, who feels the experience against top competition in the indoor event was good as the team prepares for a quadrangular meet featuring conference schools in Rogers City April 28th.

"Overall I'm real pleased with the team's progress and performance so far," Coach Cheney added.

The conference meet at Rogers City features Boyne City and Petoskey in addition to the Hurons.

Cheney singled out Jean Bitter, a freshman, for her performance in the high jump. "She cleared five feet," Cheney said, "that tops a school record." Cheney said Celina Eshenroder in the mile, and Stacy Wolcott in the two-mile event, were also sharp in their events on Friday.

To the Editor: The person who wrote a letter to the editor concerning the middle school demolition though some of the previous letters to the editor were comical and written by emotional and uninformed persons. I do get emotional when someone tries to get further into my pockets, and I am uninformed, that's why all the questions.

I wish he had been to at least one of the School Board meetings to answer some of my questions, (perhaps he was at the closed to the public meetings??). Perhaps he could answer this one, how in two weeks the School Board and the management consultation company dropped the demolition of the Middle School from $151,000.00 to $55,000.00 just because a small bunch of rebels were present at the meeting without getting a bid from a contractor? Interesting, Huh???. Or maybe he can explain why the 1975 Wakeley-Kushner report and the 1980 Bush studies were not identified as being done by one person, Donald Bush?? Or maybe he can explain why in the 1980 VanderMeiden & Associates architectural study the consultant couldn't even locate the school boiler, yet said it was obsolete? Or in the Kehoe study why didn't the School Board take the recommendations of Dr. Kehoe and get an accurate census and an up to date projection on where the school population is headed??

These are a few of the questions that have gone unanswered. If this person can answer this reported comic strip, the general population will be undoubtedly grateful and more informed. Me too.

News of Good Things Growing

by Margaret G. McCall

Is your Easter dinner menu traditional and tired? Here's a different idea, featuring pork, one of the good things growing in Michigan. A crown roast of pork is magnificent enough for this great religious feast day, and your family will be impressed with the presentation.

In 1980, Michigan farmers marketed 285,440,000 pounds of pork, worth about $135 million, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Bet that would translate into a crown roast big enough to cover the whole state.

Ask your friendly neighborhood butcher (yes, there still are some) to prepare and tie a crown roast for you, figuring two ribs per adult, one for each child. When preparing for the oven, cover the ends of the bones with foil to avoid burning. Roast at 325 degrees about 35 minutes per pound. If it's to be stuffed, remove from oven one hour before it's done and fill the center with cornbread sausage stuffing or an apple and onion dressing. Return to the oven and complete roasting.

If you didn't stuff it, serve it with a cooked vegetable in the center. It could be sliced mushrooms and green peas, seasoned with a pinch of sweet basil and a dash of nutmeg; or it could be simply cooked, mashed and seasoned rutabaga, which is delicious, under-rated vegetable.

If you don't use apples in the dressing, include a Michigan waldorf salad in your menu. That's just diced apples, celery, and black sweet cherries, well-drained. Sweetened whipped cream to which you've added a little powdered ginger is the dressing. Garnish with black walnuts, if you're lucky enough to have some.

Here's my recipe for cornbread sausage dressing.

Saute 1 pound of sausage until browned, drain thoroughly, set aside. Melt 3 tablespoons butter, saute 1 cup finely chopped onions until pale golden. Add to the sausage.

Coarsely crumble about 8 cups of cold cornbread (which you baked the day before, in your spare moments), add 1 cup finely diced celery, 1 cup mushrooms, diced (optional), 1/2 teaspoon sage, 1/4 cup diced parsley, the sausage and onion mixture, salt and pepper to taste. Moisten with a little water or white wine. We like our dressing dry, so I really skimp on the liquid.

If you want to be extra fancy, remove the foil caps and cover the crown tips with paper frills (you can buy them in kitchen and gourmet shops) before you carry the roast to the table.

Parents Helping Children

by Peter Iagvarsson

Over the past few weeks I've been explaining how to use television to teach thinking skills in two different ways. The first way taught children how to closely observe what they saw on television. The second way helped children remember what they had seen on television.

Over the next two weeks, we'll look at teaching children how to use likenesses and differences with television. At that point you will have powerful teaching tool that will help you to help your children in the same way that they learn naturally.

Just as with the first two learning activities, there is a definite way of working with likenesses. The first is to decide what kinds of likenesses you want to look at. For example when comparing Superman and Batman, you could look at clothes, how they help people, how they stop crime, the fact that they're both fictional characters, etc.

Ask the child to remember everything he can about Superman. Write the facts down on the left side of a piece of paper. After the child has remembered everything possible about Superman, do the same with Batman and put the information on the right side of the paper.

Now the child can compare the information in both columns and notice all the likenesses between the two. When you have practiced this a few times you will notice that your child remembers more information and sees likenesses you may not have noticed. Next week we'll do the same thing with differences.

District Court

The following appeared before Judge Francis L. Walsh in 83rd District Court last week:

Robert Harold Conlen, 36, New Baltimore, pled guilty to three charges, including DUI, possession of a firearm in a motor vehicle, unlawful use of marijuana. He was fined $305 or 30 days on the first charge plus suspension of driver's license for 90 days; fined $35 or 4 days on the 2nd charge; fined $205 or 30 days on the third charge.

Russell Duane Gould, 55, Byron, Wyoming, pled guilty to DUI and was fined $305 or 14 days in jail.

Jack Clifton Hartley, Jr., 31, Grayling, was bound over to Circuit Court on a charge of uttering and publishing a forged document. A $2,500 personal bond was set.

Richard E. Miller, Jr., 28, Frederic, was bound over to Circuit Court on a charge of forgery and additional charge of uttering and publishing a forged document. A $2,500 personal bond was set.

M. Brian Hexham, 21, Roscommon, pled guilty to uttering and publishing a NSF check in an amount under $50, two counts. He was fined $105 or 10 days in jail and order to make restitution.

Stephen D. Swander, 35, Grayling, pled guilty to being a disorderly person and was fined $85 or 10 days in jail.

Donald Floyd Wilson, 18, Grayling, pled guilty to a charge of suspended driving and was fined $85 and 3 days in jail or 13 days in jail.

Card of Thanks

On behalf of our daughter, we would like to thank Doctors Rosi, Burkley and Keilor and to the nurses of the Surgical Ward who made a very scared girl feel secure and comfortable. Also a very special thanks to the Emergency Room staff.

The cards, flowers, gifts and visits from our family, friends, neighbors and schoolmates made her stay in the hospital a lot easier. Who says people don't care anymore?

This program is being offered through joint efforts of the Michigan Municipal League and Kirtland Community College's Northeast Michigan Public Officials Training Program (NEMPOTP), which is funded by the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission. MENPOTP was funded in order to establish an educational training program for local government officials in northeast Michigan.

The participants of the supervisory effectiveness program will be awarded 1.5 continuous education units (one CEU is equal to ten contact hours of participation in an organized program under responsible leadership).

This program has proven to be a great success. The Michigan Municipal League has completed over thirty supervisory effectiveness training programs and has received overwhelming positive reactions to the program.

Conducting this program will be Virginia Evans, who is president of the training firm entitled Dynamic Concepts, Inc. She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. in Adult Education and Instructional Development at Michigan State University. As an organizational trainer, Mr. Evans has developed and conducted a wide range of programs including: management training; performance appraisal; human behavior and communications. Organizations for which she has worked include: Lansing area banks, hospitals, the State of Michigan, General Motors Corp., and the Michigan Municipal League.

The cost of this program will be $120.00 per participant, which covers all costs including instructional materials, lodging, meals and refreshments. The program content will include: time management; role of the supervisor; motivation; delegation; communications; and leadership styles.

Registrations must be received no later than April 15th. Those persons interested in taking this short course are asked to write to NEMPOTP, c/o Kirtland Community College, Route 4, Box 59A, Roscommon, Michigan, 48653, or call Marian Hennigar, program coordinator, at 517-275-4022, or 517-275-5121, extension 226.

Princess - Her Easter Bonnet

Twenty-five years ago Dad placed this snapshot in Baby Book - Volume Two. His own firm hand wrote the caption, PRINCESS - HER EASTER BONNET.

While Dad often poked fun at women's hats and had a sort of patient tolerance of the whole fashion bit, Easter was a day he took very seriously.

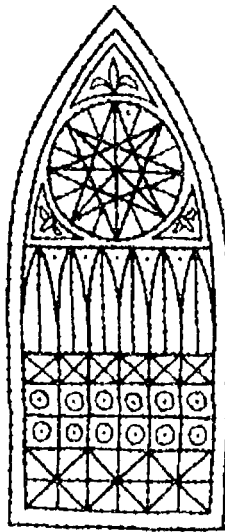

As I grew up he used to reason with me, "Princess," he'd say, "if Christ never rose from the dead -- well those disciples sure fooled a hundred generations."

"But you and I believe he did arise. And that makes Easter the greatest day of all time. You can't really celebrate it, therefore, by what you put on your head. You can only celebrate it, Princess, by what you put in your heart."

With Mother and our two children, Bob and I will be in church next week... renewing in our own hearts that firm belief in eternal Life that Dad always cherished.

done and unused appliances because of the serious danger they pose.

In other police activity, deputies responded to 57 complaints last week, and the animal control officers recorded 19 complaints, most involving stray cats and dogs.

Other complaints included five larcenies, and four incidents of malicious destruction of property. Two arrests were made for drunk driving. One personal injury accident was investigated.

General assistance calls, disturbances, prowler reports, an assault complaint, attempts to locate and health code violations kept deputies busy through the period.

Deputies were called to the scene of a suicide attempt and the ambulance made four emergency runs during the week.

Card of Thanks

You go through each day seeing people you know, doing your job, being aware of what goes on around you, but being busy you may take most things for granted. Then you may become ill or some other tragedy hits, then you realize what "concerned friends" mean, adult and future adult alike.

I received so many cards, calls, flowers and even Easter baskets from a couple of students that ride my bus. While I was a patient in Mercy Hospital, I was treated great by the staff and Doctors Blaha, Rosti and Steffe.

I feel it's not enough to just say thanks, but for the loss of better words.....

Thank You,
Lloyd Crawford

Cut Out Bones

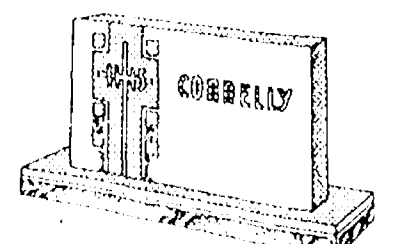

You can figure that bones take up about 25 to 30 percent of the space allocated to meat in your freezer. Leave out the bones and you can use that space for more food.

Cheese Types

There are over 400 varieties of cheese, but most of these are variations of only 18 different types.

MONUMENTS

Each of our client's requirements is different, which means that each monument we produce is custom-carved for the individual family. We advise on cemetery regulations, proper proportion, material and appropriate symbolism.
